- High resource savings in personnel and software

Our Service

Digitisation

By using our online web tool you have access to statistics and master data at any time. We also provide an app which enables your employees to enter their expenses or time sheets online via mobile phone or PC. They can also retrieve their pay slips with it. Our document exchange can take place via filesharing platform, online forms or e-mails.

Support employer

We provide a direct personal and individual support. In addition to our payroll services, we can also assist you in different areas, e.g. the entire range of HR (labour law, social insurances, strategy, etc.), accountancy and bookkeeping as well as taxes of your company.

Support employee

The needs of employees have changed significantly in recent decades. Of course, we also assist you in this matters, e.g. private taxes, optimization of retirement planning, coaching of your employees and development.

Since its foundation in 2006, excent has been known among its customers for its service quality, individuality and customer-oriented workforce.

The credo of excent is to generate direct added value for your customers and thus to set accents. We offer our clients individual support, interdisciplinary expertise and a transparent cost structure.
